

UPDATE ON TRANSFER

In April 2024, we communicated to our community that Wallet Services would be provided by a different company, WOT Global Solution Ltd, a subsidiary of The Open Platform, starting May 30th. This change is part of our ongoing efforts to provide better quality services to you.

New Service Provider Postponed

We have heard your feedback and decided to give our users more time to comply with the transfer requirements. The new service provider for Wallet Services is still WOT Global Solution Ltd.

Data Transfer Consent

By continuing to use Wallet, you agree to the transfer of your personal data to WOT Global Solution Ltd. This transfer will enable a smooth transition to the new service provider. It will include all data you provided to us and information collected while you were using Wallet, in accordance with the Privacy Policy. This includes your name, address, phone number, transaction data, and any other data we may have on you.

New User Agreement

By continuing to use Wallet, you also agree to the new Wallet User Agreement when it becomes effective. We encourage you to review these new terms carefully.

Opt-out

If you prefer not to accept these changes, you may choose to cease your use of Wallet, withdraw your balance, and delete your Wallet account by reaching out to @wallet_supportbot.
